

DEDICATION of the

Methodist Protestant Church,

MORGANTOWN, W. VA.,

August Twentieth,

1899.

I.

INVOCATION.

II.

PSALM CXXII.

MINISTER. 1. I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.

People. 2. Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

M. 3. Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

P. 4. Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the Lord.

M. 5. For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

P. 6. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee.

M. 7. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

P. 8. *For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say,
Peace be within thee.*

M. 9. Because of the house of the Lord, our God, I will seek thy good.

DEDICATION PRAYER.

The congregation standing.

MINISTER. Now to Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we, the ministers of His altar.

People. And the people of His fold,

ALL. Do most solemnly dedicate this house, as was intended to be henceforth set apart and used for God's holy worship, in becoming ministrations of the Word and ordinances, and in sacred offices of prayer, thanksgiving and praise; and we devoutly pray that the Divine presence may always abide in this consecrated place, and the divine benediction may ever rest on all who shall assemble to worship here.

GLORIA PATRI, by the Choir.
