The Fifth ANNUAL EXHIBITION

of the

Berkeley County

Agricultural and Mechanical Association,

AT

Inwood Park, W. Va.,

August 20th - 23rd, 1895.

Floral Hall

Has not yet the finished appearance that should be the case at this late hour, and hearing that many more would make entries in the ladies' department, the management will hold the books open until noon to-day, (Wednesday,) to give all a chance, and hope many will embrace this opportunity to show the visitors specimens of their handiwork.

Assistant Secretary W. A. Campbell and Bert Boak were ably assisted by Miss Anna Tabb, Mrs. M. V. Hawk, Mrs. Robt. Burkhardt, Miss Mary Bowers and Mrs. E. S. Henshaw in receiving and placing the many entries.

The display of organs by J. Wm. Miller claims special attention. It is truly a creditable exhibit in every sense of the word, and very tastefully arranged, occupying over one-half of the one side of the hall.

M. S. Burdette has a catchy display of novelties and specialties in his line.

The DAILY occupies the same corner as last year, but had to forgo the pleasure of having a press running all the time during the fair, as the press is running all this week at the home office on special work. Our representative will be pleased to meet you and if you have any items hand them in.

The Martinsburg Steam Laundry's exhibit merits special attention, as the work shown is taken out of their Monday's wash and not special work gotten up for the occasion.

Mrs. B. C. Quenzel's case of bread and cakes merits more than a pleasing glance.

M. G. Tabler is the only clothier and furnisher who has an exhibit at the Fair. This speaks well of friend Tabler; he believes in Inwood.

Equality Mills, Henry Fitz, Prop. has also a display of Fitz's best flour.

C. C. Williams,

The Old Reliable Druggist,

Of nearly forty years' experience in the drug and prescription business, after a good rest, has opened a new Drug Store on West King St., nearly opposite the St. Clair Hotel, and has it stocked with Fresh and Pure Drugs, and Chemicals, Toilet Articles, Perfumery, &c.

He would be pleased to have his old friends and patrons call and examine his stock whether they buy or not. He intends to devote his time strictly to business, and will be assisted by Mr. Wm. S. Harper, (lately with A. M. Gilbert & Bro.,) who will reside over the store when the building is completed and attend to our patrons' wants at all hours both day and night.

N. B.—Mr. Williams is not connected with, or interested in, any other drug store in the city.

THE QUENZEL PRINTING HOUSE,
EDITORS AND PUBLISHERS.

Distributed Free to the visitors of the Fair.
Be sure and get a copy and take it home
for future reference.

Marshal Burkhardt says everything is ready and that the trap shooting will be a hotly contested event.

Alexander Parks, with his usual liberality, offers a barrel of his celebrated Acme flour for the best yeast bread or roles made from Acme flour.

We missed the whole souled Manager of last year, J. F. Thompson, who on account of pressing business will not be able to even attend the present Fair.

Col. Wm. Dodd, took suddenly sick on the grounds yesterday while arranging details for to-days entertainment, we hope to see him in good trip to-day, we can't spare our manager.

Harry Stewart seems to have the corner
when it comes to horse flesh, he has entered six horses and feels proud of them and says what wouldn't Inwood be if every farmer did as well.

President G. M. Bowers must be fond of the babies, he with his usual open heartedness offers a five dollar gold piece to the handsomest baby under one year. All those lucky babies will some day vote for George.

Our friend Wright Morgan reports that an unusual amount of interest is manifested in the tournament to be held on Friday the last day of the Fair. Twelve entries have been made so far. The prizes are worthy the event, A splendid set of harness will be awarded the most successful Knight, a summerset saddle for the second,
a fine bridle for the third and a ridding
whip for the fourth.

Photo.

None need depart from the Fair without their photograph or tin type, the old reliable still holds forth and to-day Johnson is ready for business and from the preparations he is making means business.

Boys

Be careful and don't forget to bring your best girl tomorrow, Thursday, for no doubt in your opinion she will be the best looking girl at the Fair. A handsome silver cabinet photo holder will be presented to the handsomest lady on the grounds. If your lady carries off the prize you will be the solidest man on deck.

Many Wise Men.

A good many men buy all their goods from us.

A good many more would be better off for doing so.

And a good many more will when they discover the LOW prices attached to what is left of our SUMMER CLOTHING.

These goods will be sold at a great sacrifice to make room for our FALL STOCK, which will be the largest and cheapest in the city.
